

Mika Härkönen

Principal Scientist for pilot plant development at VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland and the coordinator of the ERIFORE project. The main responsibilities are project leader for the new Bioruukki Pilot Centre and coordination of research infrastructure development and networking in the field of bio- and circular economy. He has worked at VTT since 2006 and before that 15 year in various R&D and management tasks for product development and piloting at petrochemical industry (Borealis, Neste). D.Sc. (Tech.) in polymer technology in 1995 from Helsinki University of Technology.